

North Louisiana Vintage Tractor Club

EDGE & TA Branch 179

Meeting April 7, 2016

- President Barry Howard called the meeting to order.
 - No member homes flooded during the March flood. However, there was some sad news. Harold Worsham, the gentlemen the club contributed $500.00 to when his house burned last year, drowned when he was attempting to get to his flooded home.
 - Barry welcomed new member Mark Swafford
- Reverend David Matlock opened the meeting with prayer.
- Secretary report read and passed.
- Treasurer report read and passed.
- Old Business.
 - The committee that was formed to come up with a new logo for the club continues to work on the logo.
 - Due to the flood the two events scheduled for March were cancelled. They were plow day and the LATC Jena Pull and Show.
 - The Little brothers and Dan's granddaughter Ameila represented the club at the Oak Grove Sweet Potato Festival. Dan took first place and Bill took second place in the pull. Amelia also took first place in the pull.
- New Business and Upcoming Events:
 - Winn Parish Forest Festival is April 15/16. They have asked the club to display tractors at the Festival on Saturday. Festival is held at the Winn Parish fair grounds.
 - East Texas Antique Tractor Club show and pull is April 15/16 at Henderson, Texas. Be reminded they have dropped out of the EDGE insurance program. You will either have to join their club which will include insurance, $30.00, or pay $15.00 just for the week end to participate.
 - Barry went over the highlights of the EDGE & TA National Newsletter. The South Central Regional Show is May 28 at Pocahontas, AR. The National Show is June 10-12 in Wasilla and Palmer Alaska.
 - Spring trail ride is May 21. Jack Crain will follow in his truck and he will carry your bag lunches and drinks instead of having to carrying them on your tractor.

- Split the pot won by Jack Crain.
Tractor magazine won by Mike Greer.
Tractor magazine won by Dan Little.
Tractor magazine won by Larry Bryant.
- Next meeting is May 5th.
- 24 members in attendance.
